

Los Cabos, Baja California Sur, July 29th de 2023.

CULINARY AWARDS 4^a EDITION 2023

PRESS RELEASE

Online voting has begun, 169 restaurants are participating in the Culinary Awards Los Cabos 2023, A True Masterpiece

- A total of 169 restaurants and bars have completed their registration for the Culinary Awards 2023.
- 98 are in the city, while 71 can be found within hotels.
- Once again, the competition has extended to Todos Santos and El Pescadero, attracting 15 restaurants from the area to take part.
- The competition is divided into two segments: "The Members of the Jury" will evaluate 17 categories, while "Foodies Choice" online voting system will decide 15 categories, allowing the public to participate actively in determining the winners.

Los Cabos, Baja California Sur –. Once again, Culinary Awards 2023, A True Masterpiece, has exceeded all expectations with an overwhelming number of registered restaurants to be evaluated by The Members of the Jury, The Locals Choice online voting, and inclusion in the prestigious Culinary Guide directory.

In this fourth edition, the Organizing Committee will once again present the prestigious "Culinary Achievement" award, previously presented to exceptional establishments like: Sabor a Cabo, Cabo Wabo, and Casa Doña Pame.

The Jury Committee will also award a special recognition to a restaurant that has contributed significantly to the culinary scene, regardless of whether they are officially registered for the contest. Additionally, a "Consolidated Chef" award will be given to recognize the exceptional contributions to the culinary scene and commend the achievements of seasoned chefs.

Once again, The Culinary Awards is delighted to have Reserva de la Familia by José Cuervo as a participant, offering two special awards. The first award is for the "Chef Pastry" category, acknowledging restaurants that incorporate the "Agave + Chocolate" experience in their menu. The second award is dedicated to the bar category, celebrating the creation of a "Signature Cocktail with Reserva de la Familia Platino."

In the 2023 edition, restaurants were given the freedom to select the categories in which they wanted to compete. The selection process underwent meticulous validation to ensure a fair and transparent competition. It is important to highlight that during the initial stage, all restaurants can encourage voting among their clientele while adhering to communication guidelines. The term "nominees" should not be used until it is revealed during the nomination event at the cocktail nominee's ceremony.

Mark your calendars for November 9, 2023, as the grand awards ceremony will take place at the prestigious Nobu Hotel Los Cabos. The event promises to be an unforgettable celebration of culinary excellence.

The foodie public can actively participate by supporting their favorite restaurants through online voting on the website: culinary-awards.com or by using our App.

The Culinary Awards 2023 is made possible by the collaboration of significant companies that come together to strengthen Los Cabos' status as an internationally renowned culinary paradise.
